Daracon Croft Racing in confident mood

A solid test session at Tamworth Speedway has the Daracon Croft Racing Dirt Late Model Team in a confident mood heading into Round 2 of the East Coast Late Model Series at Tyrepower Parramatta City Raceway (NSW) Saturday November 1.

“We elected to take the # 71 Rocket Pontiac across to Tamworth for a test session last Saturday and came away from the day with a lot of confidence” said team principal Ken Croft from his Gunnedah base.

“A large number of parts had to be replaced after an incident at our last Parramatta start so the hit-out at Tamworth was an excellent opportunity to ensure the behind the scenes work translated to performance on the track. After a few runs I came away feeling that we have a very competitive package for the remainder of the season”.

“The engine performance was strong, with plenty of horsepower on tap. Following a few minor chassis adjustments I was able to turn some solid laps at high speed” Croft stated.

“It was also a good opportunity to get some more laps on the board at Tamworth, as the first night of the NSW Late Model Championship will be held there in March”.

“The Daracon Croft Racing Team will be looking for a good run at Tyrepower Parramatta City Raceway Saturday night as we endeavour to get our season back on track. We have loyal sponsors who are right behind us so it would be great to get amongst the results in order to repay that support” concluded Croft.

One of the Daracon Croft Racing Team’s new sponsors for 2008/09 is ‘The Sebel Parramatta’. A high class Hotel catering for the corporate sector and the leisure traveller, ‘The Sebel Parramatta’ will be providing a high level of support to the Daracon Croft Racing Team throughout the season.

Despite the problems that surfaced in Round 1 of the East Coast Late Model Series Ken Croft sits 10th in points heading into Round 2.
